173RD AIRBORNE
BRIGADE

Specialist 5th Class Johnnie Ayers was a Cook (Food Service Specialist) with the 173rd Engineers and “volunteered” to accompany our “A” Company on a mine sweep of Highway 19 west of the An Khe Base Camp. Although not officially “assigned” to the 1st of the 50th, we list him on our memorial regardless, since he died in a combat situation while in a volunteer capacity with our Infantry Unit.

Currently, no photo exists for this man.

If you can supply us with a photo, we would be grateful...and see that it gets distributed to the appropriate Internet memorial web pages.

Highway 19 was made infamous by the slaughter of the French Regimental Task Force G.M. 100, Groupement Mobile No. 100, or, "Mobile Group 100" in the Mang Yang Pass just west of the location of Ayers’s death but at the end of the French Indochina war years before. The scene is re-enacted at the beginning of the motion picture “We Were Soldiers”.

The Daily Staff Journal for the event reads: ““A” Company, 1st of the 50th, at BR352449, on a mine sweep, was ambushed by an estimated two squads of VC/NVA, employing small arms, automatic weapons and B40 Rockets”. Ayers was the only man killed, but 4 other men were wounded. 2 enemy soldiers were killed and their weapons captured in the U.S. counterattack.

A map of the location is below with the coordinates indicated.

The West Virginia State Vietnam Veteran's Memorial Website offers information on Ayers, but no photo. Based on their information, I searched for the Cemetery where Ayers is reported to be buried, Belcher Cemetery in Pinch Ridge, West Virginia, but could not find the site. I did find a "Pinch Ridge Road outside of the town of Elkview, where Johnnie Ayers's Parents lived at his death. A photo of this serene country road is shown below.
