Al "Flip" Filippelli was killed during a mortar attack on Strong Point 3 along Highway 19 West of An Khe. His replacement, Association member Clarence West, recalls: "We were at An Khe in the Support Platoon with "D" Company. My Squad had individual members that went out with the Line Companies. I was the Squad Leader at the time. We drove the Ammo trucks while at Bong Son earlier in the year and while at An Khe, we took out water and fuel and sometimes ammo. That day he and another in my squad went out to a bridge site that was being protected a few miles away. They were in a truck delivering water when mortar rounds began impacting the area. The two raced for cover in a nearby Armored Personnel Carrier and shrapnel from one round struck and killed Filippelli while the second man made it to safety".
