Lorenzo Pettis was killed In Action on June 12, 1969, near the Southwest corner of Lake Dam Tra O, South of Bong Son in Binh Dinh Province (See map below).
The Battalion History for the period stated:

"At 1130 hours, an Armored Personnel Carrier (APC) from "A" Company hit a mine, suspected to have been a booby trapped 175mm Artillery shell at BR958799. One U.S. Soldier was KIA and 5 wounded (One of which later died of his wounds).

Ten minutes later, "A" Company's second platoon, moving to the area of the blast, was ambushed at BR950815 by 7 or 8 VC/NVA with Small Arms Fire. There were no casualties and the platoon picked up 3 Male detainees, ages 50, 30 and 19
(They had no weapons)."

Also killed in the blast was SGT "Tex" Matlock, also of "A" Company. A map of
