Staff Sergeant Esteban Tadena was "A" Company's Communications Chief. On November 7th, he and LT Dennis Hinton were in the Northern part of the 50th Infantry AO using Bangalore Torpedoes to clear previously laid concertina wire around what was probably LZ Lowboy...which was just across the province border and inside Quang Ngai Province.

Tadena had charged the Bangalore electrically, but it failed to detonate. After three attempts and a considerable wait... he went down to check the connection and as he approached, it detonated, killing him instantly. Staff Sergeant Tadena was awarded the Bronze Star for Meritorious service, posthumously. A map showing the location of LZ Lowboy is shown below.

Staff Sergeant Tadena that was taken just 4 hours before the blast that took his life. Local villagers had sold some of the troops some coconuts and they were having difficulty opening them when SSG Tadena intervened. He exclaimed: "I'm from Hawaii...let me show you how this is done!" Esteban Tadena is buried at Saint Peter and Paul Cemetery, State Road 224, Ottawa, Putnam County, Ohio (Photo below right)
