Russ Roth of Vancouver, Washington, passed away on August 22, 2021, after a long battle with Cancer. Russ served with "D" and "A" Companies, 1st Battalion, 50th Infantry Regiment in Vietnam in 1967-1968 as a Combat Medic.

In civilian life, Russ worked for 27 years on the Portland Fire Department, retiring in 1999.

He is survived by his wife, Debby Gann, 2 adopted daughters from Nicaragua and 2 sons from a previous marriage... Matthew David Roth and Christopher Roth.

Russ will always be fondly remembered by his fellow medics and members of the 50th Infantry Regimental Association, where he was a life member and recipient of the "Order of Saint Maurice" from the National Infantry Association.
