I have heard from the following Family and friends of men killed in action who plan on attending the Wreath Laying Ceremony on Thursday morning. This year, if these folks all do attend, it will be between 40 and 50 people...more than twice as many as we have had at any previous gathering:

"B" Company's Charles Aaron's sister, Linda Pahl will attend.

"B" Company's Bob Ballard's Sister Cherryl Rose and her husband will attend.

~~Scout Platoon's Jerome Collins' childhood friend Helen Trammell will attend.~~

"A" Company's Malcolm Dulac's brother and 3 other family members will attend.

~~"B" Company's Barry Feldmann's brother Douglas will attend.~~ Feldmann's had to cancel - will try next reunion.

"A" Company's Sherron Harbison's widow, Carolyn Herr, will attend.

*"A" Company's Ronald Hillman's brother Clifford says he is bringing 2 family members for the entire reunion.

"A" Company's Donald Lowe's Brothers, Bill and George and 5 additional family members and friends will attend Memorial events on Thursday.

"A" Company's Bernard Meinen's Sister and her Husband will attend accompanied by their niece, a civilian employee at Fort Benning.

"D" Company's Dave Parker's sister and her husband will be attending.

"C" Company's Jim Tilley's son will attend the entire reunion.

"D" Company's James Wright's cousins, Lynn and Nicky James will attend.

Chuck Ogle, pilot of the Med-Evac chopper that crashed at LZ Litts on March 9th will definitely attend. (Reference "D" Company's firefright at LZ Litts)

Family members of Johnston Dunlop, "E" (LRP), 50th Inf., will attend the Building Dedication ceremony on Thursday morning. Also, Rick Stetson who served with Johnston Dunlop will attend Thursday Morning. Some family members had to cancel, but I received word that 5 others will attend after all.

I have contacted Family members of Charlie Company's PFC Thomas R. Wilson, KIA in Afghanistan and SGT Adam Kennedy, KIA in Iraq...Both having buildings dedicated in their names. Kennedy's will attend...Wilson's mother will attend.
